

Tutankhamun! By Kirsty Newton

Many years ago,
In the land of the Pharaohs,
A young boy lived,
Not yet fully grown.

Many years ago,
Egypt needed a ruler,
And Tutankhamun,
Ascended the throne.

Tutankhamun,
The nine year old King,
Tutankhamun,
What will the future bring?

Many years ago,
In the land of the Pharaohs,
The young king said,
Who will be my queen?

Many years ago
He chose Ankhesenamun, (an ker soo nar mun)
The bride to be was only thirteen.

Tutankhamun ...

*Now for 10 years he reigned over Egypt,
But the boy king was frail and he died,
He was buried along with his treasure,
More than 3000 years passed - The tomb was forgotten - With the secrets of the pharaoh inside.*

In 1922
Carter made a discovery,
King Tut's tomb,
Buried in the sand.

Suddenly the world knew his face and his name
The most famous pharaoh
In all of the land.
